Website Privacy Policy Statement

This privacy policy sets out how Wilton Hunt uses and protects any information that you give Wilton Hunt Ltd and Wilton Hunt Club (the company) when you use this website or give us personal information.

The company is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

The Company may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 1st May 2018.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- Name and gender
- Contact information including email address and telephone numbers
- Demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests
- Other information relevant to the activities of the Company

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs, communicate and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- internal record keeping and accountancy
- we may use the information to improve our services and activities.
- we may periodically send promotional emails and newsletters about events and other information which we think you may find interesting using the email, text message or address which you have provided.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online or by Email.

How we use cookies

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to supporter needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- whenever you are asked to fill in a form on the website, look for the box that you can click to indicate that you do not want the information to be used by anybody for marketing of other activities
- if you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by emailing us at whhonsec@gmail.com
- We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting if you tell us that you wish this to happen.
- You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please email our Hunt Secretary, whhonsec@gmail.com.

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email us as soon as possible at the above address.

We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
